Please note that during the paving of the Public Safety Building parking lot, the Recycling Container located at this site has been removed. It is expected that this project will continue through Monday, September 24th.

During this time please use any of the other recycling containers in Freeport which are located at:

- * The Soule School (South Freeport Rd/Village Store)
- * Hunter Road (in front of Public Works Garage)
- * Doherty's Market (Wardtown Road)
- * Transfer Station (100 Hedgehog Mtn. Road)

Emergency Management Planning

The Town's Emergency Operations Plan Committee will meet beginning this week after taking the summer off. The Committee, led by the Fire Chief/Emergency Management Director, is currently working to develop the Mass Casualty Incident (MCI) Plan, which is an important portion of the overall Emergency Plan.

Fall Hours at the Freeport Community Library began 09/04/18:

- Monday 10-8
- Tuesday 10-5
- Wednesday 10-8
- Thursday 10-5
- Friday 12-5
- Saturday 10-2
- Closed Sunday

In other library news, the Summer Reading Program was a huge success! 651 children signed up and read a total of 7,297 books this summer. Adult program participation was also up 78% over last year's numbers!

Town Council Chambers

As a way of recognizing each of the Town's dedicated and valued board and committee members, the Town Council cordially invites members of all Town Boards and Committees (both current and recently resigned or termed out), to attend a brief reception at the Freeport Town Council Chambers. This evening will provide the Town Council with an opportunity to show their appreciation of your commitment and contributions to the Town of Freeport.

Please RSVP to Johanna Hanselman (jhanselman@freeportmaine.com) or 865-4743 x120) by Thursday, October 11th, 2018.

Freeport Trail Challenge

People of all ages are invited to participate in the 2018 Freeport Trail Challenge. Hike four Freeport trails in September and October. Passports are available at Freeport Town Hall and the Freeport Community Center. Record your hikes in a Passport or by posting on Facebook or Instagram.

Everyone who hikes all four trails wins a prize. More prizes will be available through a drawing. For more information or to request a Passport: info@freeportconservationtrust.org or 865-3985x 212.
